What's new:

The Elden Ring was stolen by Queen Malacathagun, and the Kingdoms of the Lands Between were frozen in turmoil. Azazel Tam and the Fiernans were rescued from their nest by a strange undead Gnome named Thermitt. Together they journeyed into the frozen Lands Between and ascended the tower of Addom and searched in vain for the Elden Ring, but they learned that the Frozen Lands Between had remained frozen, and that it was left to unknown fate. Then as a violent thunderstorm brewed over the mountains, the scent of the Blood of Death and the icy breath of Zaunik emerged, and the Queen's evil plans were set in motion.

The only thing left to do was to return to the Snowdrift Isles and take back the lands of the Dawn Empire, with the powerful strength of the combined forces of the Fiernans and the Knights of King Azazel, Thermitt and Azazel Tam attacked the Dreadful Tower of Zaunik. However, the fight was to no avail.

Then the Elden Ring was returned to the Elder Angel Addom, and great events commenced at the snowdrifts of the Dawn Empire. The Lords of the Dawn Empire, Azazel Tam, the Odium Queen Malacathagun, and Thermitt, all gathered together. With much effort, they averted the misunderstanding that arose between the Knights of King Azazel and the Odium Queen, and all the errant monsters of the North Plains.

Thermitt, King Azazel's youthest knight of the White Wings, was taken by surprise when he was nominated king of the Knights of King Azazel, but he managed to fully unveil the plot of the Odium Queen. But then King Azazel mistook him for the traitor he had suspected. With his anger and sadness, the King was slain; however, before Thermitt struck a fatal blow, Zaunik appeared and cut down the King of Knights, revealing himself to be a member of the Odium!

Then the Knights of
