From Nov. 6-9, there was a web cast with the city's subway service and the mass transit company KOLO VIEW. More than two million people used the subway to arrive at the event and more than 500,000 people watched the live web cast from the comfort of home or local cafes. Of the more than 1,000 speakers at this year's MAX, more than 200 were speakers from the Korean community. Their presence reflected growing demand for the program in South Korea and across the globe. Sixteen of the MAX speakers were from the Korean community. This was the first MAX to be held in Asia. In just 10 years, South Korea has seen a 200% increase in the number of people using MAX. This growth reflects the blossoming fascination with creating and editing. MAX launched in 2008 as a three-day unconference in San Francisco. It was open to anyone with innovative ideas in technology, art and craft. The event is a unique community of thinkers and creators as well as a thriving trade show ecosystem where new technologies are unveiled. You can find people from agencies, startups, universities, corporates, social program organizations, and artisans. From all over the world, people from all walks of life come to meet in person and discuss a variety of topics.
